PREMIUM PAYMENT CLAUSE

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary within this contract or any endorsement hereto, in respect of nonpayment of premium only the following clause will apply.

The (Re)Insured undertakes that premium will be paid in full to (Re)Insurers within 60 days' of inception of this contract (or, in respect of instalment premiums, when due).

If the premium due under this contract has not been so paid to (Re)Insurers by the 60th day from the inception of this contract (and, in respect of instalment premiums, by the date they are due) (Re)Insurers shall have the right to cancel this contract by notifying the (Re)Insured via the broker in writing. In the event of cancellation, premium is due to (Re)Insurers on a pro rata basis for the period that (Re)Insurers are on risk but the full contract premium shall be payable to (Re)Insurers in the event of a loss or occurrence prior to the date of termination which gives rise to a valid claim under this contract.

It is agreed that (Re)Insurers shall give not less than 15 days' prior notice of cancellation to the (Re)Insured via the broker. If premium due is paid in full to (Re)Insurers before the notice period expires, notice of cancellation shall automatically be revoked. If not, the contract shall automatically terminate at the end of the notice period. If any provision of this clause is found by any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability will not affect the other provisions of this clause which will remain in full force and effect.

FAIR PROCESSING NOTICE

We, the underwriter(s) identified in the contract of (re)insurance, collect and use relevant information about individuals to properly produce, quote, underwrite, service and administer our insurance and reinsurance products and to meet our legal and regulatory requirements. This information includes individuals' details, such as their name, address and contact details, and any other information we collect about them in connection with your (re)insurance cover. This information may include more sensitive details, such as information about their health and criminal convictions.

We will process any personal information you provide to us in relation to your (re)insurance cover in accordance with our respective privacy policies / statements and applicable data protection laws.

Other people's details you provide to us

Where you provide personal information to us (whether directly or indirectly), you must highlight this notice to the individuals to whom the personal information relates and ensure you have their consent to provide such information to us. Unless you tell us otherwise, we will assume you have obtained their consent. If you have not obtained consent, or if any relevant individual withdraws consent, this may impact our ability to provide cover.

Minimisation and notification

We are committed to using only the personal information we need to provide you with your (re)insurance cover. To help us achieve this, you should only provide information to us about individuals that we ask for from time to time or which you need to provide to us for the purposes of performing your obligations or making claims. You must promptly notify us if any individual contacts you about how we use their personal information in relation to your (re)insurance cover, in order that we may deal with their queries.

Contacting us and your rights

Subject to certain exceptions, individuals have the right to access, rectify and erase personal information we hold about them. To exercise any such rights, or raise any questions or concerns about the personal information we hold, please contact us.

You may also have the right to lodge a complaint with the relevant supervisory authority which, in the United Kingdom, is the Information Commissioner's Office.
